

Second Review of Scottish Parliament Boundaries Lessons Learned

Action required

1. The Commission is invited to reflect on the Second Review of Scottish Parliament Boundaries with a view to producing recommendations to inform the Third Review.

Discussion

2. The main themes for consideration are listed in Appendix A and cover the Secretariat thoughts on a number of issues. Commissioners will have their own views on how the Review was conducted and may wish to contribute their own suggestions.

Next steps

3. The Commission is invited to consider the Second Review and provide feedback and suggestions for the Third Review. The Secretariat will then collate all the views received into an action plan for the next Review.
4. The Commission is also asked to consider whether any of the lessons identified in this paper should be referred to in its formal response to the Independent Review consultation into the Process for Determining Electoral Boundaries in Scotland.
